

Week 3

Which kind of student are you before a test: "I studied everything three times," or "Let's see what happens"? Why?

Why do you think people sometimes treat prayer like it's either completely up to God OR completely up to them?

Read 1 Samuel 17:45-47. What do you notice about David's attitude toward Goliath?

David trusted God, but he still stepped onto the battlefield. Why do you think both parts were important?

Think about something you're trying to get better at—school, sports, friendships, a habit, etc. What would it look like to pray about it AND actually do your part?

The teaching says, "God can conquer what we can't, but you gotta trust Him and step out." What do you think that looks like in every day life?

What "giant" are you facing right now, and what is one step you could take this week while trusting God with the outcome?
