

Week 2

What's the most awkward or embarrassing moment you've seen online recently? Why do you think videos like that blow up?

Everyone has moments where they feel like they're on the outside — have you ever felt that way?

What makes it hard to move toward people who seem left out, alone, or disconnected? Is it fear? Awkwardness? Not knowing what to say? Something else?

Read Luke 19:1–10

Jesus doesn't wait for Zacchaeus to come to Him — He goes toward Zacchaeus first.

What does that tell us about what Jesus values?

Why do you think the crowd was upset by Jesus choosing to sit with Zacchaeus?

Have you ever wished someone would move toward you during a season when you felt alone?

What's one simple, non-weird way to move toward someone this week?
