

Week 4

Who is a hero you respect — not just because of power or success, but because of character?

When you think about real-life heroes today, what qualities stand out most to you?

Can you think of a time when you truly needed help — emotionally, spiritually, or practically?

What did that experience teach you about your need for others?

Read John 3:16–17

What do these verses reveal about God’s motivation toward humanity — and toward you personally?

What’s the difference between being “saved” and being judged, based on this passage?

How does understanding Jesus as Savior (not just teacher or role model) shape your identity?

If someone asked you what it means to be saved, how would you explain it in your own words?

What’s one specific thing you can thank Jesus for rescuing you from or walking you through this week?
