Week 2

What's the worst or most random gift you've ever received?

How do you normally feel when someone gives you something that you don't like?

Read Psalm 139:1–3

What does this tell us about how well God knows you?

Read Psalm 139:17–18

What surprises you about how God thinks about you?

Do you ever feel like people don't really know the "real you"? Why?

Why can it be hard to believe that God fully knows you AND still loves you?

How would your mindset change if you truly believed "God sees me and loves what He sees"?

What's one situation this week where you need to remind yourself of God's love?
