

Week 3

Can you think of a time when something in your life didn't make sense?

Read Matthew 1:18-24

Imagine being Joseph—your fiancé tells you she's pregnant and you know it's not yours. What emotions do you think Joseph was feeling?

The angel told Joseph, "Do not be afraid." Why do you think fear often keeps us from trusting God?

What's the difference between trusting God and just hoping things will work out?

When have you seen someone else (a friend, leader, or family member) model trust in God during a tough season? How did that impact you?

Joseph obeyed right away, even though it probably cost him socially and emotionally. What do you think obedience might cost you?

Where in your life do you need to trust God before everything makes sense?
